

Conference Information

Conference Attire

Name badges must be worn at all times unless prohibited during a contest. Except where specified, official dress, contest or business attire is to be worn throughout the entire conference. We respectfully ask that no caps be worn inside any buildings except when contests require them. Students wearing inappropriate attire at any time during the conference will be asked to leave until dressed appropriately.

Sunday Afternoon Orientations

Students should wear their contest clothing (as required by the contest technical standards), business or official attire to the Opening Session and Contest Orientations.

Opening/Closing Sessions

Official attire, official contest attire or business professional is required for the Awards Ceremony. Jeans are not to be worn with the official red blazer. Award winners will not be allowed on stage to receive their award if not appropriately dressed.
